

Mixed in with the bills you get a surprise - it's a big check made out to you. It looks real, but is it? Before you cash that check, ask one simple question. Is it free money or a shortcut to big trouble?

It looks like a real check, but is it?

These days, the scammers are getting better and the scams more elaborate. Their fake checks and money orders are so good; they could fool your bank. It's harder and harder to know if the next big offer you receive is real or yet another scam designed to empty your pockets.

This dramatic film, a presentation of the United States Postal Inspection Service tells the story of the new breed of check fraud scams. This film provides invaluable tips that can help protect you from these crimes.
