

JULY 2022

Help Montana Recover From Historic Yellowstone Flooding

ABA Foundation is raising funds on behalf of the Montana Bankers Association to help those affected by devastating Yellowstone River flooding. All donations will go directly to the Montana Community Foundation. Donate Now.

Welcome Lindsay Torrico, New Executive Director of the ABA Foundation!

The ABA Foundation is delighted to welcome Lindsay Torrico as Senior Vice President of Bank Community Engagement and Executive Director!

A University of Virginia graduate with a Master's in Public Policy from UCLA, Lindsay previously served for 12 years at United Way Worldwide, most recently as Vice President of Policy and Advocacy. She has also worked for the City of Los Angeles and held positions on Capitol Hill. ABA Foundation is excited to have her join the team!

Keep Financial Education Top of Mind This Summer

Banks this summer can stay connected with kids, teens, young adults, and elders and their caregivers with free resources from the ABA Foundation. Sign up for free programs like Teach Children To Save, Get Smart About Credit, and Safe Banking for Seniors to get full access to videos, presentations, lesson plans, social posts, infographics, and activities — all designed to make learning about smart money choices and safeguarding financial assets an engaging experience for everyone.

Bankers can visit aba.com/FinEd to learn more about the ABA Foundation's financial education programs and get involved. Community organizations that are interested in hosting a banker-led presentation this summer can submit a free request via our FinEdLink online portal.