

Hugh Carney Bio

Hugh C. Carney
Senior Vice President
American Bankers Association
Washington, DC

Hugh is Senior Vice President of Prudential Regulation and Asset Management at the American Bankers Association. ABA represents banks of all sizes and charters and Mr. Carney's advocacy work focuses on regulatory capital, stress testing, and risk management issue. In addition, Mr. Carney represents the ABA and U.S. banking interests globally through the International Banking Federation.

Prior to joining the ABA in February 2011, Hugh worked in the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency's Legislative and Regulatory Activities Division and was responsible for various capital rule makings.

Hugh received his B.S. in physics, with a second major in economics, from the College of William and Mary and a J.D. from the University of Virginia, School of Law.