

Personal Finance Skills Matter.

Become a Financial Education Volunteer.

Sound money skills are important lessons that last a lifetime. ABA Foundation makes it easy to become a financial education volunteer. Here's what bankers had to say about the Teach Children to Save volunteer experience.

Banker volunteers say the experience ...

... gets name recognition for your bank and helps you build relationships in your community.

97%

say the bank-branded materials add value

71%

engaged with their school and/or educator prior to the lesson

81%

of educators like to work with the same banker which builds reputation

... is easy to implement.

100% would recommend volunteering to others

97% say provided handouts, swag and other materials are helpful

98% felt prepared to deliver the lesson

... is meaningful.

98% of educators say they would invite the banker to return

100% participate 1-2 times per year

Teach Children to Save Lessons

AT-A-GLANCE

elementary and middle school programs available

45-minute lesson

interactive, discussion-based format

Make a mark as a financial education volunteer.
Get started today at aba.com/FinEd

